The Basics

These are the General Terms for Resellers that apply to any Service you buy from BT for the purpose of resale on to Customers. Specific Services have their own Schedules and Orders with more detailed terms.

1 What words mean

- 1.1 Some of the words and phrases in this document mean specific things. They are capitalised all the way through and explained in the Defined Terms section at the end of this document.
- 1.2 The words below have the following meanings:
 - 1.2.1 'You' and 'your' mean the Reseller.
 - 1.2.2 Phrases that refer to 'either', 'neither', 'each of us', 'both of us', 'we each' or 'we both' mean one or both of BT and the Reseller, whichever makes sense in the context of the sentence.
- 1.3 The words 'include' or 'including' do not limit something to just the examples that follow.
- 1.4 Any time either of us has a right or obligation that we "may" exercise or perform, then whether either of us chooses to exercise or perform that right or obligation will be in that party's sole discretion.

2 Order of documents

In case of any conflict between any of the documents, the order of priority, highest first, is:

- 2.1 any Annexes;
- 2.2 the Schedule;
- 2.3 these General Terms;
- 2.4 any Order; and
- 2.5 if applicable to the Service, the BT Price List.

3 When the Contract starts and how long it lasts

- 3.1 The Contract starts on the Effective Date and will carry on until:
 - 3.1.1 one of us ends it (in a way that the Contract allows);
 - 3.1.2 it expires; or
 - 3.1.3 BT is no longer providing you with any Services, there are no outstanding Orders and all invoices are paid.
- 3.2 Each Order will be an amendment to this Contract.
- 3.3 If the General Terms for Resellers terminate or expire for any reason other than for those reasons described in Clause 19, the rest of the Orders in place will remain unaffected and BT will continue to perform its obligations under them as agreed in the Contract.

4 Some basic principles

- 4.1 BT confirms that it is a legal corporation, authorised to agree the Contract and provide all the Services.
- 4.2 You confirm you are legally set up as a business, authorised to agree the Contract and carry out your responsibilities under it.
- 4.3 As a Reseller, you are responsible for ensuring that you are compliant at all times with Applicable Law and regulatory requirements relating to services you provide to your Customers, including obtaining and maintaining relevant licences or authorisations as required for the duration of the Service provision. Changes in Applicable Law or regulation which may require a change to the Service will be dealt with in accordance with Clause 32 (Service Amendment).

- 4.4 We may request proof of compliance with Clause 4.3 at any stage of the Contract.

The Service

5 Appointment of Reseller

- 5.1 From the Effective Date, BT appoints you as a Reseller.
- 5.2 BT may, at any time:
 - 5.2.1 appoint another Reseller or distributor of the Services; or
 - 5.2.2 sell the Services itself.
- 5.3 Nothing in this Contract will prevent either you or BT from entering into similar arrangements with, or otherwise providing services to, any other person.
- 5.4 Nothing in this Contract will stop either you or BT from marketing, offering, selling or otherwise providing services that are directly or indirectly competitive with the services offered by the other one of us.
- 5.5 You will not sell any of the Services through a third-party without the express prior written permission of BT. Where BT provides such permission, you will enter into a written contract with the third party on terms that provide at least the same level of protection to BT as set out in this Contract.
- 5.6 You will provide and keep BT up to date with the name and geographic location of Customers that purchase the Services through you to enable BT to meet its regulatory and legislative obligations under Applicable Law.

6 What BT HAS to do

- 6.1 BT will:
 - 6.1.1 provide each Service with the care and skill that would reasonably be expected in the circumstances;
 - 6.1.2 comply with Applicable Law relating to the Service;
 - 6.1.3 comply with, and may exercise its rights in, the Compliance Obligations; and
 - 6.1.4 if applicable to a Service, take reasonable steps to stop anyone getting unauthorised access to any part of the telecommunications network provided by BT.
- 6.2 The Service may be changed by BT so long as the performance of the Service is not materially adversely affected. These sorts of changes might include:
 - 6.2.1 introducing or removing features of a Service; or
 - 6.2.2 replacing a Service with an equivalent service.
- 6.3 In addition to BT's rights set out in Clause 6.2, BT may make any change to the Service, or may no longer make the Service available for any additional Customers.

7 What you have to do

You will, and where applicable you will make sure that your Customers will:

- 7.1 use reasonable endeavours to promote, distribute, market and sell the Services and to maintain good relations with Users;
- 7.2 when you enter into contracts with your Customers for Services, ensure that those contracts flow through to the Customers your obligations and responsibilities to BT under the Contract to enable you to comply with the Contract;
- 7.3 where a Customer has to do or not to do something in the Contract, be responsible for ensuring that the Customer complies with those obligations and if the Customer does not comply, you will be liable under this Contract for any loss BT incurs as a result;
- 7.4 be responsible for all Customer support activities;
- 7.5 cooperate with BT and comply with any reasonable requests BT makes to help BT provide the Services;
- 7.6 comply with the Acceptable Use Policy and Applicable Law and your obligations under Clause 4.3 of this Contract;
- 7.7 comply with the Compliance Obligations;
- 7.8 provide BT with all relevant information in relation to health and safety and the environment and give BT any other information and materials BT asks for, within reason, so BT can provide the Services, and you will make sure the information provided is accurate and complete; and
- 7.9 for Sites not under BT's control, get all the consents, licences, permissions and authorisations needed so that the Services can be provided at the Sites by BT and you will make sure that they are kept up to date. That includes things like:
 - 7.9.1 making alterations to buildings;
 - 7.9.2 getting into property;
 - 7.9.3 dealing with local authorities, landlords or owners;
 - 7.9.4 installing BT Equipment or Purchased Equipment; or
 - 7.9.5 using the Services over a Customer's network or at a Site.

8 If you do not comply with the Acceptable Use Policy

If you or your Customers or their employees or Users do not comply with the Acceptable Use Policy, you will indemnify BT for any Claims, losses, costs or liabilities BT incurs as a result.

9 When BT IS not to blame

BT will not be liable if BT fails to do or not do something that BT is supposed to under the Contract (including not carrying out any of BT's responsibilities, carrying them out late or not meeting any Service Levels), whether or not there is a Force Majeure Event (in which case, Clause 20 applies), to the extent BT's failure is due to:

- 9.1 your failure to carry out any of your responsibilities under the Contract, or you carrying them out late, in which case you will pay us for any reasonable costs BT incurs as a result of your failure;
- 9.2 your failure to make sure that Customers carry out any of their responsibilities under the Contract, or if they carry them out late, in which case you will pay BT for any reasonable costs BT incurs as a result of your failure;
- 9.3 anyone other than BT, its Affiliates or its subcontractors doing something, or not doing something they need to do; or

- 9.4 a restriction or prevention by Applicable Law or a regulatory or competent authority in the country the Service is being provided.

Payments

10 Paying what you owe BT

- 10.1 You will be responsible for and will pay the Charges, whether the Service is used by you or someone else. This includes all Charges resulting from unauthorised or fraudulent use.
- 10.2 You will be responsible for setting prices to Customers and invoicing Customers and you will be responsible for all credit risk associated with that invoicing. You do not have to follow the recommended retail prices that BT may give to you and you may sell the Services to Customers at the prices that you determine, except where regulatory or legal requirements say that you have to charge Customers in a different way or at a different amount.
- 10.3 BT will invoice you, and you will pay BT, in .
- 10.4 BT will work out Charges based on details BT records or that are recorded for BT.
- 10.5 If BT issues an invoice online, BT will email you when BT has done so.
- 10.6 Except as allowed under Clause 12 where you are disputing an invoice, you will pay each invoice BT sends you within 28 days of the date on it. You will pay the full amount in cleared funds into BT's bank account, without any set-off, counterclaim, deduction or withholding, unless you legally have to take something off.
- 10.7 BT may reduce the number of days within which you will pay each invoice from 28 days to five days, where:
 - 10.7.1 you issue a profit warning; or
 - 10.7.2 any Credit Agency reduces your credit rating, and
BT reasonably considers that this will affect your ability to pay invoices.
- 10.8 Charges do not include any Transaction Taxes. If BT gives you a valid tax invoice, you will pay all of the Transaction Taxes due, including those BT has paid or will have to pay that BT is allowed, by Applicable Law, to pass on to you, and that telecommunications providers normally pass on to resellers. BT will not charge any Transaction Taxes on Services where you have given BT a valid tax exemption certificate beforehand for those Transaction Taxes.
- 10.9 So that the net amount BT receives is not less than the amount you owe BT, despite any deductions you are required to make (like Withholding Tax), you will compensate BT for all deductions by grossing up your payments or indemnifying BT for these amounts.
- 10.10 If you ask for any change to be made to the agreed billing arrangements for any Service, and that change results in additional Transaction Tax or Withholding Tax to BT or its Affiliates that BT or they are unable to fully recover, then, regardless of what it may say elsewhere in this Contract, BT may modify its Charges to reflect the impact of the change and you will pay BT any additional amounts.
- 10.11 If you make a payment covering more than one invoice:
 - 10.11.1 you will tell BT which amounts to apply to which invoices; and 10.11.2 if you do not tell BT, BT may apply the payment to any unpaid invoices at its discretion.

11 What happens if you do not pay BT

11.1 If you do not pay an invoice by the date it is due and you are not disputing the invoice as allowed under Clause 12, BT may:

11.1.1 charge you either:

- (a) a late payment charge, which will be described in the relevant Schedule, Annex, Order or the BT Price List; or
- (b) interest on the unpaid amount at the annual rate of 4 per cent above the European Central Bank's base lending rate current at the date of calculation, or at the maximum rate allowed by Applicable Law, whichever is less. The interest will build up and be compounded each day, from the date the invoice was due to the date you pay BT; and 11.1.2 restrict or suspend the Service relating directly to the unpaid amounts until you have paid in full.

11.2 You will pay BT any reasonable costs BT has incurred recovering any amount you owe it, including debt collection agency and legal costs.

12 Disputing an invoice

12.1 If you do not agree with something in an invoice BT sends you before you have made payment, you will let BT know within 28 days after the date of the invoice telling BT what you think is wrong and that you intend not to pay it.

12.2 If you do not agree with something in an invoice BT sends you after you have made payment, you will give BT Notice of that dispute within 6 months after the date of the invoice. That Notice needs to set out exactly what you are disputing, why, the amount and gives BT all the relevant information.

12.3 You will always pay the undisputed amount of an invoice, and any disputed amount that is less than 5 per cent of the total invoice, in accordance with Clause 10.6.

12.4 The resolved amount, if any, is payable immediately.

12.5 BT will both deal with an invoice dispute in the same way BT settles any dispute as set out in Clause 25 and you will pay the amount you and BT finally agree on within seven days of you and BT agreeing it.

12.6 BT may still charge you a late payment fee or interest on amounts payable from the date the payment was originally due that you do not pay (see Clause 11.1.1).

Protecting Information

13 Intellectual Property Rights

13.1 Intellectual Property Rights will carry on being their original owner's property whether the rights existed before the Contract or came after it.

13.2 If BT provides you with some Software so Customers can use a Service, BT gives you and your Customers a non-transferable and non-exclusive licence to use it only for the purposes BT has agreed. As well as any terms of the Contract, you will, and will ensure that Customers will, also comply with any third party terms that BT makes known to you that apply to the use of the Software or Service.

13.3 You will not, and you will ensure that Customers will not copy, decompile, modify or reverse engineer any

Software, or knowingly let anyone else do that, unless it is allowed by law or BT has given you permission in writing.

13.4 The licence BT gives you in Clause 13.2 will last as long as BT provides the relevant Service.

13.5 If using the Service infringes someone else's Intellectual Property Rights, BT will indemnify you for any third party Claims brought against you as long as you comply with the terms set out in Clause 23.6.

13.6 The indemnity in Clause 13.5 will not apply to any part of a Claim that results from or is connected with:

13.6.1 Your or your Customers' use of any of the Services with equipment, software or another service BT has not supplied;

13.6.2 Your or your Customers modifying the Services without BT's permission;

13.6.3 any content, designs or specifications that have not been supplied by BT or on BT's behalf; or 13.6.4 Your or your Customers using any of the Services in a way BT has not agreed.

13.7 You will indemnify BT for any Claims, losses, costs or liabilities arising from the matters in Clause 13.6. You will ensure that Customers stop any activity that led to the Claim as soon as BT gives you Notice or you become aware, or should reasonably have become aware, that the Customer activity was causing a Claim.

13.8 If using a Service leads to a Claim against you as described in Clause 13.5, or BT thinks it is likely to lead to one, BT may, at its own expense:

13.8.1 get your Customers the right to carry on using the Service; or

13.8.2 modify or replace the relevant parts of the Service so that using it no longer infringes another someone else's Intellectual Property Rights, as long as the performance of the relevant parts of the Service is not materially affected.

13.8.3 The indemnity under Clause 13.5 and the actions in Clause 13.8 are the only remedies you will have for Claims for infringement of someone else's Intellectual Property Rights.

14 Keeping things confidential

14.1 We will both keep all Confidential Information confidential and neither of us will disclose it, unless:

14.1.1 one of us needs to disclose it to meet your or BT's responsibilities or to receive any benefit under the Contract, and then only to each of our employees, agents, Affiliates, officers, directors, advisers, Customers and, for BT only, its subcontractors and suppliers, who need to know. The one of us disclosing the Confidential Information will ensure that the people receiving it comply with this Clause 14; or 14.1.2 any Applicable Law, government or regulatory authority, or court of competent jurisdiction says BT has to.

14.2 Each of us will return or destroy any of the other's Confidential Information within a reasonable time when the other asks in writing.

14.3 This Clause 14 will stay in place for a period of three years following the end of this Contract.

15 Data Protection

- 15.1 In this Contract, the following terms each have the meaning given to it in the GDPR: "Binding Corporate Rules", "Controller", "Data Subject", "Personal Data", "Personal Data Breach", "Processing", "Processor" and "Supervisory Authority".
- 15.2 Whether or not any other provision in the Contract may say something different, for BT to provide a Service, Personal Data may be:
- 15.2.1 used, managed, accessed, transferred or held on a variety of systems, networks and facilities (including databases) worldwide; or
- 15.2.2 transferred by BT worldwide to the extent necessary to allow BT to fulfil its obligations under this Contract and you appoint BT to perform each transfer in order to provide the Services provided that BT will rely on appropriate transfer mechanisms permitted by Data Protection Legislation, including:
- (a) BT Group's Binding Corporate Rules (for transfers among BT's Affiliates);
- (b) agreements incorporating the relevant standard data protection clauses adopted by the European Commission; and
- (c) where applicable, the EU-US Privacy Shield.
- 15.3 BT will be either Controller, Processor or both under the Contract depending on the type of Personal Data Processed and the purpose of the Processing.
- 15.4 If BT acts as a Controller:
- 15.4.1 BT may collect, Process, use or share Personal Data with BT Affiliates and Sub-Processors, within or outside the country of origin in order to do any or all of the following:
- (a) administer, track and fulfil Orders for the Services;
- (b) implement the Services;
- (c) manage and protect the security and resilience of any BT Equipment, the BT Network and the Services;
- (d) manage, track and resolve Incidents (as defined in the Schedule) with the Services as set out in the Schedule(s);
- (e) administer access to online portals relating to the Services;
- (f) compile, dispatch and manage the payment of invoices;
- (g) manage the Contract and resolve any disputes relating to it;
- (h) respond to general queries relating to the Services or Contract; or
- (i) comply with Applicable Law;
- 15.4.2 BT will Process the Personal Data in accordance with applicable Data Protection Legislation and as set out in the BT Privacy Policy and, where applicable, BT Group's Binding Corporate Rules; and
- 15.4.3 BT may, from time to time, contact the Customer Contact, or other network, IT or procurement manager involved in the procurement or management of the Services, to provide additional information concerning the Services or other similar services.
- 15.5 If BT acts as a Processor:
- 15.5.1 the subject-matter, duration, nature and purpose of the Processing, the type of Customer Personal Data and categories of Data Subjects
- will be set out in the applicable Annex that can be found online at www.bt.com/terms;
- 15.5.2 in order to perform its obligations under the Contract, BT will:
- (a) Process the Customer Personal Data on your behalf in accordance with your documented instructions as set out in Clause 15.5.11, except where:
- (i) Applicable Law requires BT to Process the Customer Personal Data otherwise, in which case, BT will notify you of that requirement before Processing, unless to do so would be contrary to that Applicable Law on important grounds of public interest;
- (ii) in BT's reasonable opinion an additional instruction or a change to the instructions provided by you in accordance with Clause 15.5.11 infringes the Data Protection Legislation and BT will inform you of its opinion without undue delay and will not be required to comply with that instruction;
- (b) to protect the Customer Personal Data against a Personal Data Breach, implement technical and organisational security measures, including those that may be set out in the Schedule, that are appropriate to the risk represented by BT's Processing and the nature of the Customer Personal Data being Processed;
- (c) provide Notice to you without undue delay after becoming aware of a Personal Data Breach affecting the Customer Personal Data;
- (d) only use the Sub-Processors approved by you by entering into the Contract or in accordance with Clause 15.5.9; and
- (e) assist you in your compliance with the Data Protection Legislation, taking into account the nature of the Processing of the Customer Personal Data and the information available to BT, relating to:
- (i) its obligation to respond to lawful requests from a Data Subject, to the extent practicable;
- (ii) the security of the Processing of the Customer Personal Data;
- (iii) notification of a Personal Data Breach affecting the Customer Personal Data to the Supervisory Authority or the Data Subjects; and
- (iv) a data protection impact assessment as may be required by Article 35 of the GDPR and prior consultation with the Supervisory Authority,
- and you will reimburse BT's reasonable costs for this assistance except for the assistance set out in Clause 15.5.2(e)(iii) where a Personal Data Breach affecting the Customer Personal Data occurred as a direct result of a breach of BT's obligations set out in Clause 15.5.2(b);
- 15.5.3 unless Applicable Law requires BT to store a copy of the Customer Personal Data, upon expiry or termination of the Contract and at your option, BT will delete or return the Customer Personal

- Data within a reasonable time period and you will reimburse BT's reasonable costs for this deletion or return of the Customer Personal Data;
- 15.5.4 BT will make available to you the information demonstrating BT's compliance with its obligations set out in Clause 15.5, and, subject to 30 days' Notice from you, allow for and reasonably cooperate with you (or a third party auditor appointed by you) to audit this compliance at reasonable intervals (but not more than once per year), so long as:
- (a) the audit will:
 - (i) not disrupt BT's business;
 - (ii) be conducted during Business Days;
 - (iii) not interfere with the interests of BT's other customers;
 - (iv) not cause BT to breach its confidentiality obligations with its other customers, suppliers or any other organisation; and
 - (v) not exceed a period of two successive Business Days;
 - (b) you (or your third party auditor) will comply with BT's relevant security policies and appropriate confidentiality obligations; and
 - (c) you will reimburse BT's reasonable costs associated with the audit and, where BT conducts an audit of its Sub-Processors to demonstrate BT's compliance with its obligations set out in Clause 15.5, those of its Sub-Processors.
- 15.5.5 BT may demonstrate its compliance with its obligations set out in Clause 15.5 by adhering to an approved code of conduct, by obtaining an approved certification or by providing you with an audit report issued by an independent third party auditor (provided that you will comply with appropriate confidentiality obligations and not use this audit report for any other purpose);
- 15.5.6 BT will not disclose Customer Personal Data to a third party unless required for the performance of the Service, permitted under the Contract or otherwise required by Applicable Law;
- 15.5.7 BT will ensure that persons authorised by BT to Process the Customer Personal Data will be bound by a duty of confidentiality;
- 15.5.8 BT may use Sub-Processors in accordance with Clause 27.2 and will ensure that data protection obligations in respect of Processing Customer Personal Data equivalent to those set out in Clause 15.5 will be imposed on any Sub-Processors;
- 15.5.9 BT will inform you of proposed changes to BT's Sub-Processors from time to time by either:
- (a) providing you with online notice of the intended changes at www.bt.com/terms and you will have 30 days starting from the first Business Day of the calendar month following the date of the online notice to object to the change; or,
 - (b) giving you Notice in accordance with Clause 26 and you will have 30 days starting from the date of the Notice to object to the change, and
- if you do not object in accordance with Clauses 15.5.9(a) or 15.5.9(b), you will be deemed to have authorised the use of the new Sub-Processors;
- 15.5.10 you may object to the use of a new Sub-Processor by giving Notice in accordance with Clause 26 documenting material concerns that the Sub-Processor will not be able to comply with the Data Protection Legislation, and if such Notice is received within the time required by Clause 15.5.9, we will both address your objection in accordance with the process set out in Clause 25 and BT may use the relevant Sub-Processor to provide the Service until the objection is resolved in accordance with Clause 25;
- 15.5.11 the Contract contains your complete instructions to BT for the Processing of Customer Personal Data and any additional instructions or changes to the instructions will be incorporated into this Contract in accordance with Clause 32 to take account of any resulting change in the Charges or the Service;
- 15.5.12 you will comply with applicable Data Protection Legislation and will fulfil all the requirements necessary for the provision of the Service by BT, including providing any notifications and obtaining any regulatory approvals or consents required when sharing Personal Data with BT; and
- 15.5.13 you will only disclose to BT the Personal Data that BT requires to perform the Services.
- 15.6 If permitted by Applicable Law:
- 15.6.1 a party in breach of the Data Protection Legislation or this Clause 15 will be liable to the other for any losses, costs and liabilities (including those arising from Claims) incurred or suffered by the other party where those losses, costs and liabilities are caused by, or in connection with, that breach including where the parties are jointly and severally liable; and
- 15.6.2 where the parties are jointly and severally liable for a Claim caused by Processing neither party will make any payment or any offer of payment to any Data Subject (including third parties acting on behalf of any Data Subject) in response to any Claim caused by or relating to the Processing of Personal Data, without the prior written agreement of the other party.
- 15.7 Where each party acts as a Controller in relation to the Processing of Personal Data under the Contract, the parties will not act as joint Controllers for the purposes of Article 26 of the GDPR in relation to such Processing.
- 15.8 If, in accordance with Clause 33, BT proposes amendments to the Contract to reflect changes to BT's security measures, policies and processes to enable BT to comply with the Data Protection Legislation, you will act reasonably and in good faith to negotiate those amendments in a timely manner with BT.

Ending the Service or the Contract

16 When BT may restrict or suspend a Service

- 16.1 BT may restrict or suspend any Service or a part of a Service:
- 16.1.1 if BT needs to do Maintenance;
 - 16.1.2 to implement a change under Clause 6.2;

- 16.1.3 if you do not pay BT on time and in the way described in Clause 10.6;
 - 16.1.4 if you or your Customers do not follow the Acceptable Use Policy; or
 - 16.1.5 BT reasonably thinks it needs to in order to protect the integrity or security of BT's network.
- 16.2 If BT restricts or suspends the Service because of the reasons in Clauses 16.1.3 or 16.1.4:
- 16.2.1 you will still have to pay the Charges that are payable for the Service until the Service ends; and
 - 16.2.2 BT may charge a re-installation fee to start the Service again.
- 16.3 If BT decides to restrict or suspend the Service for any of the above reasons, BT will let you know beforehand as soon as BT reasonably can.

17 Cancelling an Order before the Service Start Date

- 17.1 You can cancel an Order, or part of it, any time before the Service Start Date by giving BT Notice.
- 17.2 If you do:
- 17.2.1 if the cancellation has any impact on volume commitments or otherwise affects the agreed Charges, BT may amend the Charges to reflect this; and
 - 17.2.2 you will have to pay BT the Cancellation Charges that are described in the Schedule. If there are not any in the Schedule, but BT has incurred any costs in order to get ready to provide your Service, including cancellation charges from one of BT's suppliers or other costs payable to a third party, you will have to pay BT those costs that are reasonable in accordance with Clause 10.6.

18 If either of us want to terminate the Contract or the Service

- 18.1 Either of us can terminate the Contract, a Service or any Order:
- (a) as set out in Part A of the Schedule for that Service; or
 - (b) if it is not set out in the Schedule, by giving the other 90 days' Notice,
- and either you or BT will each have to pay the other the amounts referred to in Clause 22.
- 18.2 If you terminate the Contract under this Clause 18, you will also have to pay BT the Termination Charges.

19 Terminating the Contract when something has gone wrong

Either of us can terminate the Contract or an affected Service straightaway by giving the other Notice if:

- 19.1 the other materially breaches the Contract and, where it is possible, they do not put the situation right within 30 days after Notice of their breach;
 - 19.2 the other materially breaches the Contract and the situation cannot be put right; or
 - 19.3 an Insolvency Event applies to the other,
- and each of us will have to pay the other the amounts referred to in Clause 22.

20 Terminating the Contract if there is a Force Majeure Event

- 20.1 If a Force Majeure Event means a Service is completely and continuously unavailable for more than 30 days, either of us can terminate the Service straightaway by giving the other Notice, as long as the Force Majeure Event is still having an effect when the Notice is received, and each of us will have to pay the other the amounts referred to in Clause 22.2.
- 20.2 If the Force Majeure Event has ceased before any Notice to terminate is received by one of us, the right set out in Clause 20.1 will end and the Notice will have no effect.

21 What happens when the Contract is terminated

- 21.1 If the Contract or a Service is cancelled, terminated or expires, it will not affect any rights that either of us have up to that point.
- 21.2 BT will in no circumstances be liable to any Customers of the Service where the Contract or a Service is terminated.

22 What both OF US need to pay when the Contract is terminated

- 22.1 If the Contract is terminated or expires you will no longer identify BT as one of your providers or promote, market or advertise the Services or make any use of BT's Intellectual Property Rights other than in support of the Services that have already been ordered from and accepted by BT before the termination or expiry of the Contract.
- 22.2 If:
- 22.2.1 the Contract, a Service or any Order (or part of any Order) is terminated, cancelled or expires, for any reason, each of us will immediately pay the other any money and interest that is due on the date of termination;
 - 22.2.2 the Contract, or any affected Service is terminated in accordance with Clause 19.3, the party terminating may alternatively set off any amounts due under this Contract or any other contract between the parties.
- 22.3 If you terminate the Contract, any Service or any Order using your rights set out in Clause 18, you will pay BT:
- 22.3.1 the Termination Charges; and
 - 22.3.2 all Charges for Services that are or would have been performed during the Notice period set out in Clause 18.1, whether or not such Notice period is actually given.

If Something Goes Wrong

23 How far each of us can be held responsible

- 23.1 The Contract excludes, as far as the law allows, any warranties, conditions or other terms that might be implied by statute or common law.
- 23.2 Nothing in the Contract excludes or limits the liability of either of us for:
- 23.2.1 death or personal injury caused by either of us being negligent;
 - 23.2.2 fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation; or
 - 23.2.3 any other liability that cannot be excluded or limited under Applicable Law.
- 23.3 Other than for those matters in Clause 23.2, neither of us will be held liable, regardless of how that liability arose, under or in connection with the Contract, and whether in contract, tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty), misrepresentation (whether innocent or negligent), restitution, or in any other way, for:

23.3.1 any of the following losses, no matter if those losses are direct or indirect:

- (a) loss of profit, revenue or anticipated savings;
- (b) loss of business or contracts;
- (c) loss of goodwill;
- (d) loss from wasted expenditure, wasted time or business interruption;
- (e) loss, destruction or corruption of data;
- (f) liability to any third parties; and
- (g) any special, indirect or consequential loss or damage.

23.3.2 In relation to each Service, the total liability of each of us, regardless of how that liability arose, and regardless of the number of claims, under or in connection with the Contract, and whether in contract, tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty), misrepresentation (whether innocent or negligent), restitution, or in any other way, will be limited to the greater of:

- (a) £100,000; and
- (b) an amount equal to:
 - (i) where an incident arises in the first 12 months of the Contract, the Charges for that Service that were paid or payable by you in the first month of the Contract, multiplied by 12; or
 - (ii) at any other time, the mean monthly Charges for that Service that were paid or payable by you, as calculated from the Effective Date up to the date when either of us became liable, multiplied by 12.

23.4 Your obligations to pay any Charges, including interest under the Contract, refund any Service Credits or pay any Termination Charges are in addition to and will not be counted towards the limitations in Clause 23.3.2.

23.5 Regardless of what it may say elsewhere in the Contract, both of us are always obliged to take reasonable steps to mitigate each of our losses, even where that loss occurs as a result of anything that may give rise to a Claim under an indemnity.

23.6 If either of us has agreed to indemnify the other under the terms of the Contract, that indemnity is only given as long as the party being indemnified:

- 23.6.1 tells the party giving the indemnity promptly about the Claim;
- 23.6.2 gives the party giving the indemnity complete control of the Claim straightaway;
- 23.6.3 does not say anything publicly about the Claim, or do anything that harms the defence of it; and
- 23.6.4 does what it can to help the party giving the indemnity with the Claim.

23.7 If BT fails to meet a Service Level and this means that you are entitled to Service Credits, the only remedy available to you for that failure will be to receive those Service Credits, except when BT's failure amounts to material breach of the Service. If this happens BT will take the value of any Service Credits given from the amount of damages awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction.

23.8 BT recommends that you obtain business continuity (or other) insurance that is appropriate for the nature of your business, just in case something goes wrong.

23.9 Provided BT has complied with BT's obligation set out in Clause 6.1.4, BT will not be held responsible for any loss or damage caused by unauthorised access to any part of the BT Network.

24 Force Majeure Events

If there is a Force Majeure Event:

24.1 neither of us will be liable for failing to do or not do something they should have done, or for not doing it completely or on time; and

24.2 both of us will each get a reasonable amount of extra time to do what each of us has to do.

25 Settling disputes

25.1 Both of us will do what either of us reasonably can to settle any dispute or Claim that occurs under or in relation to this Contract, and to avoid having to get the courts or regulatory authorities involved.

25.2 Both of us will use the following dispute resolution process:

25.2.1 whichever of us is affected will provide Notice of our complaint that clearly sets out the full facts and includes relevant supporting documents;

25.2.2 both of us will use reasonable endeavours to settle the dispute within 14 days of getting the complaint and will make sure to give regular updates to the other during the 14 days;

25.2.3 if the dispute is not settled after 14 days (or any other period agreed by both of us in writing), the dispute can be escalated to a senior executive of either of us (someone at vice president level or above);

25.2.4 if the dispute still is not settled 14 days after it is escalated, both of us will consider mediation as set out in Clause 25.3.

25.3 After complying with Clause 25.2, either of us may by giving Notice to the other, propose a mediator, in which case:

25.3.1 unless both of us agree to another date, the other party will either confirm their acceptance of the mediator or propose another mediator within 15 days of the date of the Notice;

25.3.2 if both parties cannot agree on the choice of mediator within a further 15 days, the mediator will be appointed by the London Court of International Arbitration or an equivalent independent body;

25.3.3 unless both of us agree otherwise, any mediation will happen in London, in English; and 25.3.4 unless both of us agree otherwise, we will both share the costs of mediation equally.

25.4 Nothing in this Clause 25 stops either of us:

25.4.1 seeking interlocutory or other immediate relief if one of us is at risk of imminent harm, unless something in the Contract already provides an adequate remedy;

25.4.2 going to a court of competent jurisdiction if either of us considers it reasonable; or 25.4.3 doing anything else this Contract lets us do.

Everything Else

26 Sending Notices under the Contract

- 26.1 If one of us needs to give the other Notice, they will do it in writing, in English and:
- 26.1.1 send it by email;
 - 26.1.2 deliver it by hand; or
 - 26.1.3 send it by first class post, recorded delivery or courier.
- 26.2 Notices need to be sent to:
- 26.2.1 the recipient's current registered address; or
 - 26.2.2 any other address or email address the recipient gives in a Notice to the sender.
- 26.3 If either of our contact details change, we will both tell the other straightaway by giving Notice.
- 26.4 The recipient is deemed to have received the Notice on the date (or if the date is not a Business Day, then on the next Business Day) that:
- 26.4.1 the recipient acknowledges it by manual reply or an automatic read receipt, if it is an email;
 - 26.4.2 the Notice is left at the address or someone signs for it on behalf of the addressee, if it is delivered by hand or sent by courier; or
 - 26.4.3 is three days after posting, if it is sent by first-class post or recorded delivery.

27 Transferring to another party

- 27.1 Either of us may assign the benefit of the Contract to an Affiliate by giving the other Notice, but if either of us chooses to assign the benefit of the Contract to an entity that is not an Affiliate, they need to get the other's permission in writing beforehand.
- 27.2 BT may subcontract any of its responsibilities under the Contract to another entity, including to one of its Affiliates, but if it does, BT will still be responsible to you under the Contract.
- 27.3 If BT subcontracts the performance of any of its rights or obligations to one of its Affiliates as described in Clause 27.2, you will, once you receive Notice from BT, deal directly with BT's Affiliate for ordering, provisioning or maintaining the Services.
- 27.4 By giving you Notice, BT can novate the Contract, a Service or an Order to one of its Affiliates. If BT does this, all its rights, responsibilities and liabilities will transfer to its Affiliate and you will need to deal with BT's Affiliate instead of BT as BT will no longer be a party to the Contract in relation to the relevant Service.
- 27.5 Both of us agree that either of us, or an Affiliate of either of us, may enter into a separate contract with an Affiliate of the other, which will incorporate these General Terms and the relevant Schedules ("Affiliate Contract").
- 27.6 Either of us can assign or transfer our right to collect payments, receivables or other assets arising as a result of the Contract.

28 Third parties' rights

A person who is not a party to the Contract will not have any right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of the Contract, even if a term seems to give the party a particular benefit.

29 No partnership or agency arrangement

Unless a Clause in the Contract says something different, the Contract does not:

- 29.1 set up any partnership, exclusive arrangement or joint venture between us;
- 29.2 make one of us the agent of the other; or
- 29.3 authorise either of us to enter any warranties, representations or commitments for, or on the behalf of, the other.

30 No waiver

If either of us does not do, or delays doing, something that this Contract allows, they will not have waived their right to do it, unless the Contract says something different.

31 What happens if part of the Contract is illegal, invalid or unenforceable

- 31.1 If any court of competent jurisdiction finds that any part of the Contract is illegal, invalid or unenforceable, that part will be considered removed, but no other part of the Contract will be affected.
- 31.2 If any illegal, invalid or unenforceable part of the Contract would be legal, valid or enforceable if part of it were removed, both of us will negotiate in good faith to change the Contract so it reflects what each of us originally intended as much as possible.

32 Service Amendment

- 32.1 You may request, by giving BT Notice, a change to:
 - 32.1.1 an Order for a Service (or part of an Order) at any time before the applicable Service Start Date; or
 - 32.1.2 a Service at any time after the Service Start Date, and where BT agrees to the change you will pay any additional Charges.
- 32.2 If you request a change in accordance with Paragraph 32.1, except where a change results from BT's failure to comply with its obligations under the Contract, BT will, within a reasonable time, provide you with a written estimate, including:
 - 32.2.1 the likely time required to deliver the changed Service; and
 - 32.2.2 any changes to the Charges due to the changed Service.
- 32.3 BT has no obligation to proceed with any change that you request in accordance with Paragraph 32.1, unless and until the necessary changes to the Charges, implementation timetable and any other relevant terms of the Contract to take account of the change are agreed between both of us in writing.
- 32.4 If BT changes a Service prior to the Service Start Date because you have given BT incomplete or inaccurate information, BT may, acting reasonably, apply additional Charges.

33 Making changes to the Contract

- 33.1 Unless a Schedule says something different, changes to the Contract will only be effective if they are in writing and are signed by both of us.
- 33.2 Neither of us needs the consent of any Affiliate to vary or terminate the General Terms for Resellers. Any termination of the General Terms for Resellers will not terminate any individual Affiliate Contracts.

34 After the Contract ends

At the end of the Contract, provisions in the Contract that both of us expect to remain in place after it ends will stay in place.

35 The Contract stands on its own

- 35.1 The Contract sets out the whole agreement between both of us and replaces any communication both of us have had before with each other.
- 35.2 Your own standard terms are not part of the Contract even if you provided them to BT before signing the Contract, or if you send them to BT or refer to them in an Order.
- 35.3 By agreeing the Contract, each of us acknowledges they have not relied on any representation, warranty, collateral contract or other assurance (made negligently or innocently) except for the ones in the Contract. Each of us also waives all rights and legal remedies they might have had if it were not for this Clause 35.

36 Choice of law and courts

- 36.1 The laws of Ireland will apply to the Contract and any disputes or Claims in connection with it or the relationship between both of us, including non-contractual ones.
- 36.2 Only the courts of Ireland will be able to rule on any disputes or Claims in connection with the Contract or the relationship between both of us, including non-contractual ones.
- 36.3 The parties to an Affiliate Contract may agree that a local court of competent jurisdiction will have jurisdiction in relation to that Affiliate Contract.

37 Counterparts

The Contract can be signed on one or more copies. Any single counterpart, or a set of counterparts signed, in either case, by both of us will constitute a full original of the Contract for all purposes.

Defined Terms

"Acceptable Use Policy" means specific rules that you and your Customers have to follow when using the Services. You can find the policy at www.bt.com/acceptableuse (or any other online address that BT may advise you).
